“ To everything there is a season... I am so grateful for the time of friendship, for the time of mentoring in knowing the voice and ways of God, praying together, sharing family memories, and always being there for each other, no matter what. To my dear friend and big sister, oh what joy we shared as we walked together. Blessed to have been your friend and to have you as a mentor and sister. With much love,

“ Marc,

I pray that you and your family will be comforted during this time and celebrate with you in the home going of your mother. Be encouraged and comfort one another knowing that “precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of His saints” Psalms 116:16.##imported-begin##Angela Crooms##imported-end##

“ I want to express my deepest sympathy to your family in your time of grief. Jesus tells us at John 5:28,29; "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice 29 and come out, those who did good things to a resurrection of life, those who practiced vile things to a resurrection of judgment.

He also promises to destroy death (Revelation 21:4) so that mankind will be able to live out his days the way God originally intended.."even life forever more". Psalm (133:3) May your hearts find comfort and reassurance from the true God.##imported-begin##Lisa##imported-end##
