

Mrs. Flora Cantrell-Straub

May 21, 1943 - February 21, 2022

In Loving Memory Of

Flora Lee Cantrell-Straub (Flo) – age 78 passed away on Monday, February 21, 2022 at her home in Lake, Michigan. Flora was born on May 21, 1943 in Erwin, Mississippi to parents Lovely and Annette (Miller) Taylor. Flora was a devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother with a passion for the Lord and for her family. She lived a full and enriched life with a special gift of discernment for guiding family and friends through life's difficult situations. Flora was like a guardian angel sent down from heaven. Her soul was blessed with loving wisdom, unwavering strength, and determination for life.

Flora is survived by her husband, Michael Charles Straub; her seven children: Gail Annette Cantrell, Sharon Diane Cantrell, Ricky Ricardo Cantrell (deceased) (Debra), James Chantae Cantrell (Charlotte), Roger Montoya Cantrell (Tina), Flora Andrea Ayoola (Yomi), Cantrell LaQuita Straub; four grandchildren, Rickeyda, Desha, Stephon, Folarin, and five great-grandchildren: Jack, Justin, Gia, Mia, Joshua; brothers and sisters, Leon Taylor, Marie Soler, Nellie Taylor, and her extended family in Toledo, Ohio, the Jones and Toney families, which includes a host of loving brothers and sisters, nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Flora was a licensed cosmetologist and achieved a Master's degree in Social Services. Before her passing she was honored with a Certificate of Appreciation from the Easter Seals for providing program support for those with disabilities and their families throughout the state of Michigan and the United States. Flora enjoyed travel, gardening, fishing, antiques, shopping for herself and the family, and providing community service. She was a “giving” spirit and loved to surprise family and friends with special gifts of jewelry, clothes, and great finds from her travels. Flora is dearly loved and will be sincerely missed.
