“ My sincerest condolences to the entire family of Mother Brandon. The light may have dimmed here on earth, but the light I see from the Heavens... A place of rest, a place of rewards for a job well done. I recognize what couldn't be seen by just anyone... I recognize that this mother didn't want to fail at her duties and not leave a legacy. I applaud God's child and bid her farewell for a job well done. I move myself in prayer that her family will stay strong and move right along making mother Florence proud. Peace to you all.
