In Loving Memory of Florence Elaine Goldsmith

Sunrise: May 11, 1944 - Sunset: November 23, 2015

Florence Elaine Goldsmith was born on May 11, 1944 in Detroit, Michigan to the union of Ms. Dorothy Percy and the late Kendrick Goldsmith. She attended Northern High School and ultimately married her childhood sweetheart John Wesley Bembry and during that union they had two children, John Wesley Bembry Jr. and David Jerome Bembry. She later remarried in 1963 to Ralph Hoard and, to that union they had one child, Belinda Leigh Hoard.

Florence was the eldest of six children. She had four brothers who preceded her in passing. They were Leonard, Aaron, Artis, and Kenny. She also has a loving sister, Donna Jean. Florence also had three special uncles: Reno, Larry, and George. Florence was well known for her welcoming heart and sincere hospitality. Florence loved everyone and never held anything against anyone. She thrived on loving family. And to her, all was family, including, close friends. She lived her life helping others at every opportunity. Florence was employed as a government worker with the U.S. Postal Service and also studied criminal law and assisted with case law research for various attorneys for the government. She also worked diligently as an insurance agent for the John R. Martin Agency. Through her endeavors she had a multitude of friends. For everywhere Florence went, she was adored and appreciated.

Florence was best known for always bringing people together and making all the people in her life feel happy. She loved fishing, traveling, and giving nice presents to those she loved. She just loved interacting with people. She cherished life and lived it to its fullest.
