“ You have always been my rock, my friend, and most of all my auntie. Words cannot describe how much I love you. We have cried together, laughed together, ran the streets together, fussed together, lived together and everything. There was nothing I could not share with you and there was no battle you weren't willing to fight for me. I will truly and forever miss you and love you. Now my mom has her sister and friend up there resting easy with her. You don't have to suffer anymore, you have gained your wings and the Angels have welcomed you home. Your family will love and cherish the memories we have had. Auntie thanks for all that you have been to me..

“ My deepest sympathies to the Moses family. May you find comfort in the memories you've shared together an in the "God of all comfort , who comforts us in all our tribulations."(2cor 1:3,4) And who promises that soon sickness, and death , pain will be no more. (Isa.33:24. & Rev. 21:3,4) May these beautiful promises from the Bible warm your heart and brighten your day.

Sincerely,
Alicia U
