

Mrs. Florine Robinson

March 6, 1922 - March 6, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of Florine Robinson:

2 Timothy 4:7-8 - I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith; to henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.

This is the thought that comes to mind today, as we remember our beloved...

Florine Williams was born ninety-four years ago on March 6, 1922 to her proud parents Lorine Williams and Lilly Buchanan in Cotton Plant, Arkansas. Words could not express the joy that was felt in both their hearts for their baby girl. Florine was affectionately known to her family and many friends as Flo.

Florine was born into a Christian foundation. She was introduced to her heavenly father and accepted Jesus Christ as her personal savior at an early age. Florine was educated in the Arkansas Public Schools system.

Florine met and married Theodore Adams and was blessed with one son Loren Adams. In 1948 she relocated to Detroit, Michigan in search of a better life. Florine married R. A. Robinson and the two became proud parents of three children: Mary, Jessie and Array Robinson. Though the union between the two ended, they remained friends for many years to come. Years later

Florine met and married Y. D. Robinson and from their union Tamekia Robinson was born.

Florine was employed as a household manager and cared for numerous families and their children for many years. Though Florine was blessed with five children she was also “Momma” to her countless number of grandchildren, great-grandchildren and great-great-grandchildren.

Florine enjoyed life and was able to touch the lives and hearts of everyone that she met. She was a humble person and would give her last to help anyone. Surely many felt that they had a personal connection with Florine. Her favorite pastime was spending time with family and friends.

Florine was preceded in death by her loving husband Y. D. Robinson; sons, Jesse Robinson and Array Robinson; daughter, Mary Barnes; brothers, Jeff Williams, Jerome Williams and Freddie Williams and grandson, Larry Barnes.

Florine received her wings on Sunday, March 6, 2016. She made her transition receiving eternal life in a place where there is no pain, tears, heartache, or headache.

Florine Robinson a devoted wife, loving mother and grandmother...
