

Mr. Florzell Hooks

August 13, 1954 - November 21, 2021

In Loving Memory Of:

Florzell Hooks better known as "Floyd" to all those he loved. He was born on August 13, 1954 in Detroit, Michigan to Ruby Rice and Florzell Hooks Sr. Floyd accepted Christ at an early age and enjoyed spending a lot of time in Church worshipping and praising the Lord. He attended Detroit Public Schools where he went on to work in environmental services until his eyesight declined. Floyd was joined in holy matrimony with Angie, for many years.

In his leisure, Floyd enjoyed watching movies, television, and spending time with his loving family. He enjoyed good cooking at ALL times and shared many great meals with his niece TaNisha, great-nephew and great-nieces who cared for him many years until his death. He looked forward to holidays and celebrations where he could enjoy time with family and make lasting memories. He had a beautiful surprise birthday party this year that he continuously talked about because he had such a wonderful time! Floyd departed this life on November 21, 2021. Floyd was preceded in death by his wife Angie, loving Mother Ruby and Father Florzell.

He leaves to cherish his memories of his loving siblings one sister Pam (Renellton), one brother Rodney (Paula), three nieces TaNisha, Amber (Dion) and Raquel, three nephews Cortez, Carlos, and Renairol three great nieces Jade, Payton and Jada aka "Tootie", one great nephew JaRen, close cousins

Rita (Tyrone), and Dennis along with a host of cousins and friends.
