June 11, 1990 - August 6, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Floyd Renold Cook 3rd (aka Bart), was born on June 11, 1990, in Detroit, Michigan, he was born to Floyd Cook Sr. and Yasmin Simms. Floyd was the youngest child on his father's side and his mother's only child. Floyd accepted Christ at an early age. Floyd was raised by his Grandparents Archie and Betty Norman on the eastside of Detroit. Once Floyd was born, he became his grandparents only child (they had Marci Butts (Liv.), Adrian Hooks, Vicent Simms, Aaron Simms, Yasmin Simms (Liv.)) because Betty spoiled Floyd rotten, and he could do no wrong in her eyes, and being his mother's only child he was her best friend and was spoiled even more. He bonded with his grandfather over a good game of pool at the "Q stick" or a good game of chess.

Floyd attended Detroit Public Schools, in the eastern district, where he found a passion for football and math. He got his G.E.D. in Charleston, West Virginia on April 6, 2016. Floyd was an entrepreneur and an herbalists, he did landscaping, home improvement, security, and he catered at local events.

Floyd was joined in holy matrimony with Jameresha Richardson, but he leaves the love of his life his fiancé Alisha Henderson in his memory. Floyd was a loving, caring and dedicated father (of 9). He was a comedian, who loved cracking jokes about himself and others, because he was such a Jokester and such a big baby at heart. He got his passion for riding motorcycles, from his father, and Floyd later dedicated his life to H.L.M.C of Detroit, Michigan, just as his late father.

Floyd made his transition on Aug 6, 2024. Floyd is survived by his mother Yasmin, his 2 sons and 2 daughters and his fiancé Alisha Henderson to cherish his memory. He also leaves behind a host of brothers, sisters, nephew, nieces, cousins, friends, and his Hell Lovers M.C. family whom he cherished.
