“ *Mann bruh....I'm so sorry man, he didn't have to lose his life, it pains me to be watching the new and someone I basically grew up with is being talked about in the worse way ever, Forest helped me with a lot, he helped me with my confidence, he gave me a friend, he would always come to me when him and some of our other friends needed a singer in their group.. My heart heart so bad, Forest was why I started boxing, he is also why I started playing sports.. I always had a feeling he was gone be something big one day...I and a whole lot of other people lost a good friend.. I will always remember you and your smile Forest..R.I.H Forest Athan Rochon Jr.

“ Just want the Rochon family to know that you all are always in my prayers. I know that this is a very sorrowful time for you but things are gonna work out if you hold onto God's unchanging hand. I have known the Butler/Rochon family all of my life and Little Forest was like a nephew to me. Cry no more and just know that he is in the arms of God and having a grand time with all of his loved one's that have gone on before. Just remember I love you but God love's you more and He will see you through.

Love, Fichella

“ The people we love live on in our hearts. It takes a long time to get over a loss of someone we love. But it's important to remember that when people die they leave something very special behind. They leave us memories of what they said and done. Cherished these memories keep them close to heart. May the God of all tender mercies and hope sustain the family at this sad time.

“ I would like to send my condolences to the Rochon family at this time. Death is an unnatural part of life, especially for a young teenager. But a time is coming in which unnatural death will not occur. Also, we will be able to see our loved ones again in the future. Please find comfort in these words and continue to lift each up during these hard times.

John 11:25 - "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life."
