“ Frances was a true servant of the Lord. She was generous, compassionate, and supportive of those in need. She and James always greeted me with warmth and a big smile, as they offered me a great meal. They both laughed and talked about the blessings and goodness of God. Frances words of wisdom will always be with me. During the saddest moments, Frances was able to bring light and joy by offering support and comforting words. I will miss Frances' physical presence but will always feel her spirit.

“ Steve and Tesa - your parents were two of the good ones. They took a new dude to the neighborhood under their wing and made him feel welcomed. I'll love them both forever. May God hold both of your hands to guide you through this new chapter of your lives.

Standing by for whatever you may need.
