

Ms. Frances Ann Herron

September 27, 1953 - November 12, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Frances Ann Herron was born September 27th, 1953 in Humboldt, Tennessee to Jettie Mae Swift and James Albert Herron. Frances grew up in a large family being the 5th eldest out of 13 siblings. She formed a relationship with Christ at an early age and learned it throughly. Before she departed from Tennessee she attended Stigall Elementary High School.

In 1969, Frances moved to Detroit, Michigan and went to Northwestern High School until she began to start her family. From Frances, 4 children were born; Fredrick, Lachenna, Dana, and Michelle (Manny), but many more were taken in with open arms such as her adopted son, Wilbert Roseman. To keep her legacy going, she left behind 20 grandchildren and 16 great-grandchildren. Three proceeded her in death (Antionette, Santana, and DaVaughna).

Frances better known as “Black” loved to cook and have her family over to play games. She loved to “drop it like it’s hot” to her music no matter who danced with her. Frances loved her Detroit Lions no matter the outcome. She would always say “scared money don’t make no money” as she always loved to gamble and talk mess!

Frances loved everyone like they were her own, always forgiving, no matter the circumstances. She was always the life of the party and made every celebration a “Wang-Dang- Doodle!” Frances cherished her family above anything else! She believed “Family Comes First!!” She swore by it! Frances’s accomplishments were her family’s and she leaves behind a big one..
