

Mrs. Frances Irene McCommons

September 29, 1929 - December 29, 2016

This was her journey:

Mrs. Frances Irene McCommons was born on September 29, 1929 in Greensboro, Georgia. She was the daughter of George and Annie Jones, who preceded her in death. From that union eleven children were born, six boys and five girls. Frances was the eighth child born.

Frances graduated from the Alexander School System. She enjoyed teaching the younger children while she attended Alexander. Frances was baptized at Moses Chapel Baptist Church, where she attended faithfully.

In April of 1948, Frances married Vince McCommons Jr., the love of her life. From that union eight children were born, six boys and two girls. They moved their family to Detroit, Michigan in 1954.

Frances loved to cook and would sing while she was cooking. In her leisure time, she loved to sew, watch CNN and read the daily newspaper. She always kept up with politics and current events. She was very funny. She would always tell jokes that would crack you up. Then she would sit back and watch you with a straight face, but most of all, she loved her family and friends. She loved being with her family at gatherings.
