

Mrs. Frances Amelia Pippin

March 17, 1925 - October 17, 2020

In Loving Memory Of:

Frances Amelia Pippin was born on March 17, 1925 in Fairmont, West Virginia to William Taft Kelly and Polly Brown. She was the youngest of 10 children.

Francis accepted Christ at an early age. She had an extremely strong faith in God and became a devoted member of New Mount Herman Missionary Baptist Church, where she faithfully served on the usher board and the senior club.

Frances attended and graduated from the West Virginia Public School system. She later attended quilting and cooking classes in Detroit, Michigan which led her to be gainfully employed at major hotels in Plymouth, Michigan as a pastry chef.

She was joined in holy matrimony with Harry Bordley, who preceded her in death. To this union two daughters were born, Amelia and Harriet.

In 1966 she married John L. Pippin, the love of her life. They enjoyed many years of travel including fantastic events with family and friends.

Frances embraced her role as mother, grandmother, great-grandmother and her surrounding neighbors. Everyone was welcomed in her home. She enjoyed working in her garden, cooking, quilting and serving in church. She loved traveling, the trip around the world was a highlight of her travels.
