

Mrs. Francine Joyce Davis

February 29, 1936 - September 23, 2016

A Celebration Of Life:

Francine Joyce Davis was born February 29, 1936 in Detroit, Michigan. She was the eldest of nine children born to Andrew Edward Turner Sr. and Janet Fenelli.

She was the beloved wife of James H. Davis Sr. for 56 years and the mother of four children. Joyce received her formal education from the Detroit Public Schools system.

Through the years she worked as a phlebotomist, a laboratory technician and a court appointed guardian ad litem for abused children and children in foster care.

Sister Davis accepted Christ as her Savior at Greater Love Tabernacle COGIC in Detroit, Michigan where she served as a faithful member before moving to Hurricane, West Virginia where she became a member of True Faith Community Church.

Joyce was a generous, caring and loving woman who loved reading, studying her Bible, listening to gospel music, crocheting, needlepoint and making crafts of all kinds such as her beautiful lap cloths; however, one of her greatest joys was children.

Though, she had four children of her own; so many have called her “Mom.”

Joyce will be remembered for her mothering spirit, her generosity and for being a

Strong Woman of God,

To The Davis Family,

Dear Bishop Davis and Family,

We were very sorry to hear about the passing of your love one. On behalf of everyone at God’s House of Blessing Church, I would like to offer our deepest sympathies to you and your family for the loss your Mother. In this great time of sorrow, please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.

We offer words of comfort from Psalms 46 “God is our refuge and strength a very present help in time of need”. While the passing of a love one hurts those left behind, I hope you can take comfort in the fact that your mother is safe in God’s arm now. She will live on not only in your memories, but with our heavenly Father as well.

We will continue to lift you up in prayer. If there is anything you need during this difficult time, please do not hesitate to reach out to your church family for support. We are here for you, emotionally, spiritually and personally.

Your Church Family,

“ Bishop Davis,

The Spotsylvania Branch of the NAACP extends our profound sympathy in the home going of your mother. The thought of knowing that your mother is in the presence of our Savior provides comfort, especially when we have the confidence that the Holy Spirit who resides in us. The Word of God (Isaiah 25:8) tells us that, "He will swallow up death forever, And the Lord God will wipe away tears from all faces; The rebuke of His people He will take away from all the earth; For the Lord has spoken."
