

Mr. Frank James Blackmon

May 5, 1967 - March 26, 2025

Frank James Blackmon was born on May 5, 1967, in Yazoo, Mississippi to the late Ada Marie Blackmon and Father Robert Steward. Frank was the second oldest of ten children. He spent his first year in Yazoo Mississippi and then relocated to Detroit, Michigan in 1968 with his mother.

Growing up in the city, Detroit was now his new home. Frank accepted the Lord Jesus Christ at an early age. He attended Detroit Public Schools. He enjoyed life to the fullest. He loved sitting on his porch listening to music, going fishing, BBQ and watching movies. His favorite show was Into the Night, and you couldn't tell Frank anything about the Dallas Cowboys!

Frank was a "Jack of All Trades." He was a serial entrepreneur. He owned several halls and clubs including Half Time Sports Bar. He owned real estate all around the city in the form of land and houses. Frank was a fashion icon. Every time you saw him; he was sharp with the latest shoes and clothes. Frank was fascinated with cars, especially old school cars. One thing for sure is that he loved his dogs.

For thirty years, Frank was a dedicated member of the motorcycle club Sons of Zodiac, in which he was the president for seventeen years. Frank enjoyed riding his Harley with his crew. Frank will always be remembered for his firm stubborn ways and his playful laughter. Frank was the foundation of his family. He was a provider, protector, and a man of his words.

He leaves to cherish his memory of his four children Frank Blackmon Jr., Calvin Blackmon, Breanna Blackmon, and Tyesha Thomas; his five brothers; Odell Blackmon, Milton Blackmon, Robert Blackmon, Roy Blackmon Jr., Barron Blackman and his four sisters; Arnette Blackmon, Tonya Blackmon Neal, Tonisha Blackman, Sherrie Blackman and one special granddaughter Giabella Criss and along with a host of nieces, nephews, family and friends and Father figure Roy McDougle.
