“ Frank was a sweet man with a kind hearted soul. He was a good friend and neighbor to my dad for many years, and also helped my dad out a lot, since my dad had a tough time walking due to Neuropathy. My sister and I met Frank in person after our dad’s passing, but felt like we knew him already because of all of the wonderful things my dad would say about him. Frank became a friend of mine too. We would talk on the phone and text periodically. I loved hearing about his life, and daily routines and how happy he always sounded while talking to him in the phone. I would fill him in on my life and family too because he would always ask. Frank will be greatly missed. My deepest condolences to his family. ~ With Love, Stephanie Gregory
