“ Frazier, our sympathy to you and your family at this time. Fathers are special people in our lives . Your Father made you the man you are today, and although I never met him I know the work he did while here was first class.

I'm sure he's in a good place now , may his rest be peaceful.

“ Dad,

I miss you more than you could ever know. You were my father, friend and mentor.

I will never forget the laughs we shared together. The heart to heart talks you gave me that helped mold the man I am today. The understanding you showed after giving me "The Look" that let me know I did something wrong. The kindness and compassion you showed when something just went wrong.

I love you dad and will try my hardest to continue to make you proud of the boy you raised to be a man.

Miss you so much.

You were the best Father-In-Law a girl could ask for. Thank you for the talks and your words of encouragement. You will be forever in my heart. I will miss you so much. I love you dearly. No words can express how I truly feel. I am so devastated about you going home. May the Lord wrap his arms around you. Good bye for now. I will see you soon.

Frazier was the perfect neighbor. I have lived a lot of places and I can't remember a kinder, more generous man than Frazier. I was privileged to be his next-door neighbor and will sorely miss his smile and wave. God bless you and my prayers and thoughts to the family.
