

Mr. Fred Edward Avery

August 28, 1950 - June 13, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Fred Edward Avery:

Fred Edward Avery was born on August 28, 1950 in Detroit, Michigan to Lawrance and Idell Avery.

Fred accepted Christ at an early age. He attended Detroit Public Schools.

After high school, Fred served in the Army as a Specialist-4 and fought in the Vietnam War. He served from September 5, 1968 to September 4, 1970.

Fred was funny and had an outgoing personality. He knew how to wear a suit. He loved to make people laugh. He attended college classes in the 70s while working at Chrysler.

He was joined in holy matrimony with Gertrude Avery in June 1987. To this union two children were born (Barbara Boykin and Corey Avery).

Fred and Gert loved to dress alike and attended Lions and Pistons games and enjoyed parties and clubs.

Fred Avery departed this life on June 13, 2018.

“ My sympathy goes out to you at this time. Losing a loved one in death is very painful. However, God is aware of your pain. He promises at Isaiah 61:2 “To comfort all who mourn.” So, he will provide you the strength needed to get through this time. I hope this brings you some hope at this time. You are in my prayers.
