“ Uncle Hank I miss you man, I know if you could see my crying you’d tell me to cut it out. I wish I could just come sit in the garage and talk to you about cars and everything goin on in the world. You kept me laughing you believed in me and always took up for me. Nothing has been right since you left us and I’d do anything to just hear your voice yelling “ Duke come pump these brakes or ride wit me to get this car. I miss us watching gold rush, deadly catch, gas monkey garage, street outlaws and our favorite duck dynasty. I love you Unc wish I would’ve told you that more while you was here.

“ May God bless this loving family. The last few weeks have been painful and the abrupt loss of Hank is still very difficult to accept and comprehend. In time, I pray that the loving memories of him will outweigh losing him. To Hank, this is not goodbye. We will meet again in Christ and spend more time together. You are forever loved and sorely missed. Sandra, Sharad, Ausar and Aumar Mundra of Detroit, MI
