“ To The Family,

No one can prepare you for a loss; it comes like a swift wind. However, take comfort in knowing that he is now peacefully resting in the arms of God. Look back on all the wonderful memories you were able to have with him and smile. Stay strong and know that you are remembered in our thoughts and prayers. Our deepest, heartfelt condolences & love to you and your family.

*Sincerely,

“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of a great man. I have a memory of Fred and my father that I have shared with friends and family hundreds of times. My father immigrated to Detroit from another country and purchased a bakery in Hazel Park in the 70's. Fred was my father's salesperson and over last 40 years they remained friends.

When I was around 16 years old, I remember walking into the bakery to find my father and Fred eating lunch together. Both of them sitting at the table dipping bread into the same plate of food "Fondue Style". Both from different ethnic and racial backgrounds enjoying a meal together as friends.

It was a moment in time that really showed me that at the end of the day we are all the same and ethnic or race doesn't play any part in friendship.

Over the last 15 years they haven't seen each other that much but my father always told us stories about Fred and refers to Fred as his brother.
