

Mr. Frederick Louis Wallace, Sr.

November 22, 1951 - July 3, 2013

Frederick L. Wallace Sr. was born November 22, 1951 in Spartanburg, South Carolina to the late James Louis Wallace and Mary Lucille Wallace. Frederick was the oldest of four children.

In 1965, James and Lucille moved their family to Detroit, Michigan where Frederick attended Hutchins Middle School. He attended Northern High School where he was very athletic. Frederick played varsity football and was a superb member of the track team. In 1970, he graduated from Northern High School with academic honors.

Frederick started his working career in 1973 at Chrysler Corporation Lynch Road Assembly Plant. He worked at this location for nine years until he was relocated to Wilmington, Delaware. Fred was an exceptional employee for thirty-three years, and in 2007 he retired from Chrysler Corporation. He was admired by many friends and coworkers.

Frederick was affectionately known as "Freddie" to family, and Fred W. to close friends.

Freddie enjoyed the finer things in life! Freddie loved cars. His favorite car was a Lincoln Continental. He purchased Marks I through V. Later, his favorite car became the Mercedes Benz which he enjoyed driving especially when traveling from Delaware to Detroit for family gatherings. He was classy and stylish! Freddie wore a hat to coordinate with each outfit. Freddie was a sharp dresser.

Frederick L. Wallace Sr., better known in the 12-step program as "Fred W". He was a member for over 27 years, where he served as a meeting chairperson, treasurer and secretary in the Small Wonder Area. Fred W. organized meetings in hospitals, institutions, prisons and rehabilitation centers. Fred W. was a well respected, loved and cared for member.

He was in service to the 1212 corporation of Wilmington Delaware in the early 90's and held the position of president for five years along with being on me Board of directors. Fred W. was always available to help and support those who were willing to do something different to find peace and serenity in their lives.

Frederick made his transition on Wednesday, July 3, 2013.
