

Mr. Fredrick Dwight Jackson

December 31, 1956 - September 19, 2013

Fredrick Jackson was born on December 31, 1956 in Detroit, Michigan. He was born to the union of the late Beatrice Jackson and QD Jackson.

He accepted Christ and was baptized into the Better Living Center Seventh-Day Adventist Church under the direction of Pastor Malcolm Phipps. He also attended Davison Elementary Seventh-Day Adventist School, as well as Kettering High School in Detroit, Michigan.

He was the second of four children born to Beatrice, and the only son. Edith was the firstborn and always expressed love for her "baby brother." Tori was the third born and was particularly helpful during his illness. Donna was the baby of the family and affectionately called her brother "Little Jack."

Fred was a big fan of "Wrestle Mania." So much so, that he often convinced his little sisters to engage in wrestling matches (unbeknownst to their mother).

Although Fred was the only son born to Beatrice, the Lord saw fit to place in his life two brothers: Randolph (Randy) the husband of Edith and William (Wade) his childhood friend.

Fred was also blessed to bring into this world a beautiful daughter, Laceshanise (Linda).

Mr. Fredrick Jackson made his transition on September 19, 2013.
