

Mrs. Gale R. Hampton

October 16, 1955 - July 26, 2013

Ms. Gale Regina Hampton was born October 16, 1955 in Inkster, Michigan. Her parents, both from Georgia were Helen (Head) Hampton and Calvin Hampton (both preceded her in death). After living in Ohio for several years Gale returned to Michigan to live with her Aunt Dot and Uncle Bill Hampton. Gale attended Cleveland and Detroit Public Schools. After high school, Gale graduated from the C.E.T.A. Employment Program. Completing the program landed her a job at General Motors and later at Chrysler JNAP, where she worked until she became sick and unable to return to work.

In 1986, Gale was united in marriage to Dwight Anderson and this union was made complete with the addition of one child, a gift, Kimani.

Gale had a knack for beading and starting her own company making jewelry in 1980. Her favorite hobby of all time was fishing second only to her love for life. Gale loved to play Bid Whist; she attended tournaments all over the country. Gale loved to cook - everyone loved her cakes and mac & cheese. Gale was an uplifting person with a warm personality that made everyone smile.

“ My condolences goes to Gale's family. I worked with Gale when she started at JNAP on the door line. She was a very nice person. She left us to soon. She will be missed. May God open his arms and hold her until it's time for us to join her. Martha Huffman
