

Mrs. Geneva Adams

September 9, 1928 - February 14, 2015

The Life Of Geneva Adams:

Geneva Adams was born September 9, 1928 to the late Charlie and Lucille Jones. She was one of thirteen children.

She was born, raised and educated in Elberton, Georgia. As a child, Geneva devoted her life to Christ.

After moving to Detroit, Michigan, Geneva married the late Grady Adams on December 10, 1960. Together they had six children. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother who loved spending time with family and friends.

The wellbeing and care for her children and grandchildren was always her main priority. Gen cared for others deeply and was a very supportive and compassionate woman who shared her love and joy through her actions. She loved shopping, gardening and family gatherings.

On February 14, 2015 Geneva made her transition while at Four Seasons Nursing Home in Westland, MI. In her last hours she was comfortable and surrounded by her loved ones.

“ Granny, Words cant express how sad I am that I didnt get enough time with you. I remember when I was small and you had that little poodle at the house and I always wanted to play with that Dog. You would tell me to "Leave that dog alone"!!! Ill never forget you and even though we didnt spend as much time as i would have liked you will forever be in my heart!! love you my sweet grandmother!!!!!! Love Nicole "Nikki"- Atlanta Ga.
