“ Dear Family of our sister Genevieve. I am so very shocked to hear this, the last time I saw Genevieve was @ the job it had to be six months ago. For the past week she was so heavy on my heart and I wanted email her for a lunch date to thank her for her prayers and her consistent walk with our Lord Jesus never wandering or wavering. She was so very strong in the Lord Jesus. She would praise the Lord so @ GGT years ago (35 years) and I asked her pertaining to her joy and she gave me the scripture Galatians 6:4 and I never forgot that coming from the Lord through her. She stayed the same walking in Jesus. To the family, I leave the scripture of Isaiah 57:1: "The Righteous perisheth, and no man layeth it to heart: and merciful men are taken away, none considering the the righteous is taken away from the evil to come" Lord will, I will meet my sister in the air in the Rapture. Be Encouraged!!

“ *I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words for Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4. For more information on the scriptural hope, please visit: www.watchtower.org.

“ To Cecil & Family,
To my little brother, I know what you're going through I know you've asked God, Why! Why would you take such a beautiful person away from me? If only we know the answers to that question. One thing I can tell you, it will get better, because why you are crying tears of sorrow, Ms. Genevieve, is crying tears of joy, because when she got to the kingdom of heaven, her name was in the book and the Lord only words to her was: come on in my good and faithful servant, you've have passed the final test. No more pain, no more suffering. Now, Cecil, you know what Ms. Genevieve, is doing: she's trying to figure out how to fly with those beautiful wings God has bestowed upon her and how to keep that long white robe down. Lil brother, I love you and I cherished your friendship, Cecil, it will get better. Always keep God, first (you always do that anyway) am praying for you and your family, be strong.

“ To Derrick & Family,
My family and I met you and your mother 2 years ago when the Springer Reunion was in Detroit. It was our 1st trip there. Genevieve met us at the hotel and worked diligently to make sure everything was perfect. I'm very glad to have known her, even though it was only for a short time. I will remember her down here in Georgia tramping through the woods where the old home place is located. God Bless & Keep you all.

“ No matter how old we are, losing a mother is one of the deepest sorrows a heart can know. But her goodness her caring lived on, like a legacy of love that will always be with you. May the memory of her love surround you now and bring you peace. God is with you and you family Minister Springer. You have my prayers. (Sis. Irene Walton)
