

Mr. George Lee Davidson

February 18, 1938 - December 1, 2014

Celebrating The Life Of George Lee Davidson:

George Lee Davidson was born February 18, 1938 in Houston, Mississippi to the union of Charles Davidson and Florence Davidson (who preceded him in death).

George Davidson was married to Laverne Davidson (who preceded him in death) for 27 years and from that union came their two daughters, Wanda and Karen. Years later he married his beloved Ruby Davidson and they have shared their union until God called him home.

George Davidson graduated from Northwestern High School and obtained his high school diploma. He retired from Detroit Diesel after 35 years of employment.

He also dedicated his life to his music as a bass player musician with the Rhythm Masters Band. Most of his enjoyments were shooting pool with friends and family, watching Karate, playing bid whist and watching tennis.
