

Mrs. George Ella Hendricks

September 11, 1942 - March 29, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of George Ella Hendricks:

George Ella (Daniel) Hendricks was born in Chambers, Mississippi on September 11, 1942.

George Ella was the second child of ten children born to the late Reverend Willie George and Senoil Daniel. George was affectionately called "Sister" by her siblings, and she preferred to be called "George" by her family and friends.

George confessed Christ and was baptized at Shady Grove Baptist Church under the leadership of the late Pastor R. S. Sales.

George met and married Solomon Hendricks. She had four children, Alfondo, Shawn and Kimberly; later in life George was blessed to have her baby boy, Jabari.

George attended the Detroit Public Schools system, graduating from Chadsey Senior High School. She received training and was licensed by the State of Michigan as a cosmetologist.

George worked at Chrysler Sterling Stamping Plant for 34 years, retiring in 2002. There she made many friends for life.

George loved to play Scrabble and do word puzzles. She was an excellent Bid Whist player. She bowled until her health declined. She was a superb cook and was well known for her peach cobblers and sweet potato pies.
