

Mr. George William Kelly

July 17, 1950 - February 6, 2017

Home Going Celebration For George William Kelly:

Mr. George William Kelly, affectionately known as “Georgie Boy,” was born on July 17, 1950 in Jasper, Tennessee. His mother, Ruby, father John, brothers John Jr., Walter, and one sister Lesa preceded him in death.

George confessed Christ at an early age and was baptized on November 11, 1962. He united with Greater Saint Stephens Missionary Baptist Church in 2013 under the leadership of Rev. Dr. Larry Robinson until the time of his death.

George attended Detroit Public Schools until his high school years, of which he completed at Roosevelt Sr. High School in Dayton, Ohio.

After high school, George enlisted in the United States Army where he served his duty to his country, receiving his honorable discharge.

George loved family, drawing and sports especially boxing, basketball and football. With boxing being his favorite, from flyweight to welterweight, he never lost a fight, earning him titles as Boxer of the Month and Boxer of the Year. George demonstrated that strength and courage during his long fight with cancer and fought until the bitter end. He will always be loved and remembered by his warming smile, loving and giving heart.
