

Mr. George Myatt Jr.

October 24, 1928 - July 31, 2014

George Myatt, Jr. was born on October 24, 1928 in Birmingham, Alabama to George Myatt, Sr. and Frances Floyd.

George was the youngest of four children. His parents, brothers, wife (Pauline Myatt) and stepson (Samuel Jenkins Jr.) preceded him in death.

At an early age, George accepted Christ as his Lord and Savior. He attended and graduated from the public schools of Birmingham. After graduating from high school, he enlisted in the United States Army. He served our country for six years (mostly in Germany) and received an honorable discharge.

After his honorable discharge, George moved to Detroit, Michigan and began employment at General Motors (Detroit Diesel). He was an active and loyal member of the UAW Local 163. He later retired after 38 years of service. During this time, George was also an active member of King Solomon Baptist Church, where he served as a member of the Usher Board. In his spare time he enjoyed bowling, darts, playing pool (Billiards) and taking drives through the city.

George built meaningful relationships with co-workers and friends alike. He was family-oriented, and a pillar of strength for all who needed him. He was respected in his community, admired by those around him, and his memory will live through those he has left behind.

After overcoming several obstacles throughout his life, George made his transition on July 31, 2014 at 11:40 a.m.
