

Mrs. Georgia Sledge

October 13, 1917 - January 7, 2014

Georgia's Journey:

Born in Rayville, Louisiana to the late George Wilson and Leola Turner Wilson on October 13, 1917, Georgia was the second born of six children.

Georgia grew up on a farm, and she helped with the planting, feeding the animals and care of her brothers and sisters. She also attended Rayville Public Schools with eight years of education.

Georgia met and married Charlie W. Sledge and to this union one son, Charles W. Sledge was born. Her husband and son preceded her in death.

She worked as a municipal employee for the city of Monroe in Louisiana for 30 plus years. She retired in 1972 and relocated to Detroit, Michigan to be near her many family members.

Georgia was a member of St. Mary Missionary Baptist Church in Monroe and later joined St. Suzanne Catholic Church in Detroit.

She enjoyed the company of her family and she loved to fish and crochet. She spent many hours crocheting afghans for family members.

“ Please accept my heartfelt sympathy. Death is mankind worst enemy. You know the bible advise us of a plan to eliminate death forever. At John 5: 28.29 it tells us of the hope of reuniting with our dead love ones. Soon Jehovah (Psalms 83:18 - identify Gods' name) will demolish death forever. Again please accept my sincere condolences.
