Celebrating The Life Of Geraldine "Jerri" Bradley:

Geraldine (Jerri) Bradley, was born June 30, 1947 in Detroit, Michigan to Sylvester Daniel Howard and Imatean Bradley both of whom are there greeting her in heaven.

Jerri accepted Christ at an early age. Her disabilities limited her travels a lot of the time.

Jerri attended and graduated from Western High School in Detroit, Michigan in 1965. Jerri was popular at Western and well-liked by everyone, teachers and students alike.

After high school Jerri went to work for NBD (Chase) Bank, in their lockbox department and retired on disability after 30+ years. Jerri contracted Polio at age 5 and struggled to learn to walk again and with much determination she succeeded. Jerri was a strong woman and triumphed over 5 heart attacks, 3 knee replacements, we thought we had lost her several times but God is Good.

If you look around you will see a lot of family and friends here today because Jerri had and big heart, a magnetic smile. She would not hesitate to help anyone whenever they needed help. Jerri enjoyed attending the Red Hat gatherings, she is known as Baroness Bee, watching QVC was also one of her favorite pass times.
