“ Gerri, I can think of so many good memories of you, you were always the calm voice of reason. Our friendship goes back so many years starting as ushers, our mothers were so proud that we were their daughter board. Thank you for always been so kind, sweet and thoughtful. The one special memory I will forever hold close and cherish would be you calling to tell me that you was so happy for me that I was getting married, and that you had "something borrowed" for me, on my wedding day I had a beautiful lace handkerchief wrapped around my bouquet. Gerri, I am thankful and grateful that I was able to tell you one last time I love you! Take your rest my friend.

To the family be encouraged. To be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord.

“ Gerri, I will always cherish the conversations we had when I was a young wife and mother. Remembering our days together as Ushers of our church. I truly loved your calmness, your sweet spirit and the encouragement that you gave others. My dear and life long friend, the Lord gave you your wings for a job that was done well. Family, stay encouraged and keep her kind heart and sweet spirit in your hearts and minds. Love you!

“ To Mama Hall, you’ll be remembered by me from the phrase that followed your warm greeting, at the first time we met “Will you have some dinner?” For over 22 years, that phrase came from you consistently, from the moment I met you. You opened your home, your heart, and your kitchen table to me with that phrase, “Will you have some dinner?” I can never forget you, as you were the only one in my life who have engraved such a phrase, and such a feeling, that you will always save a place for me at your table. I anticipate seeing you again and hearing that phrase, “Will you have some dinner,” as I believe that you’ll save me a place at your great heavenly table. From your Son-In-Law, Jay Finch
