“ *Welp granny! I did it!!!
I did what you wished! I found a church home and joined. I am an active member and attend every week! A lot of the lessons you’ve taught finally stuck with me! I got it now!*

I attend the chosen church and Niro and I are there every Sunday! I just have to work on attending Sunday school now!

Thank you for teaching the importance of knowing Christ! He’s all I speak of and I stay inviting people to my church! I listen to sermons all day and even gospel music in the car. I feel me changing and I’m embracing that!

I know this is the path to seeing you again!

“ Dear Aunt Geraldine:

Thank you for being such a wonderful treasure and source of inspiration in my life. Thank you for believing in me. When people criticized me, you defended my character and innocence. When the world defamed me, you reminded family, friends, and congregants that youths often err, make costly mistakes, but still have the propensity to soar! Again, I cannot thank you enough for believing in me when so many others refused, instead, regrettably, believing the worst.

As well, you always made me feel like a member of your family—always! A couple of my fondest childhood memories happened in your beautiful home. Two events especially stand out. I attended my first birthday party at your home for Tina’s tenth birthday. I can still see Tina dancing to Stevie Wonder’s “Boogie on Reggae Woman.” A few years later I spent a whole weekend at your home with you and the girls; Michelle, Sharon, Pam, and Dwayne wee there as well. What a weekend! I always loved spending time with my cousins. A preteen or early teen, I had lots of fun that weekend. We played games, danced to soul music and disco, and relished your delicious meals. I particularly remember this weekend because it was my first sleepover away from home with peers/family other than Deb and Kenny. Again, dear aunt, I will always treasure your love and encouragement through the years. I miss you; I love you always!

Dear Tina, Rosemary, Francine, and Sharon:

Know that your extraordinary mom’s legacy lives in each of you. Now an ancestor, Aunt Geraldine is also a guardian angel. Therefore, Sharon, your mom will be by your side when you have your upcoming surgery! You will be fine. Mom and I will continue to pray for your strength, precious cousins. Always know that I am only a phone call away. Please let me know if you need me.

With love,

Bernadette and Gloria Pruitt
