

Ms. Geraldine Whittler

January 10, 1955 - October 27, 2013

Geraldine Whittler was born on January 10, 1955 in Detroit, Michigan. Geraldine was the fifth of seven children born to Clifford Whittler, Sr. and Eva Nadine Whittler. Both of whom preceded her in death.

Geraldine graduated from St. Andrews High School in Detroit, Michigan in 1972 where she won a national award for essay writing. She attended the University of Michigan Ann Arbor and graduated in 1976 with a BA in psychology. While working for the State of Michigan Department of Human Services she returned to school and obtained a Masters degree in education from Wayne State University.

She was employed with the state of Michigan for over 30 years until she became ill and retired in 2008.

Geraldine was an avid reader and excelled at all levels academically. She was also a trivia buff.

Geraldine loved animals especially dogs and cats. She also loved children and was an affectionate aunt toward her nieces and nephews.

Geraldine accepted Christ knowing her mother prayed for and desired this for her. This acceptance was witnessed by her sister Patricia on October 26, 2013 and was guided by Pastor Olivett Mapson.

Geraldine departed this life on October 27, 2013.

“ *My dearest sister Gerri,
Words cannot express my grief.
It is hard to think of going on in life without you. We had lots of great times together. I will always cherish those times and our daily phone conversations.
We love you and will all miss you. I will do my best to take care of little Chloe.
Godspeed, until we meet again.
Love Your baby sis Koren*
