“ It all started June 1983 when we met James on the plane to the Azores. He introduced us to my beautiful sister Geralyn. She was so easy to love and bond with. I chose her to be my sons godmother. We spent almost every Sunday hanging out doing our girls hair while cooking dinner. So many wonderful memories. Geralyn forever changed my life and I'm so blessed to have known her. Don't worry. I along with others will take care of your children. I love you. Rest with God.

“ It all began while James, was stationed at Wright Patterson Air Force Base. My husband and I, was renting the first floor of an 2 apartment house, 32 Miller Avenue, Fairborn Ohio. The top floor was empty and so was my heart, was missing my family. But then James and GERALYN moved upstairs. Wasn't sure what nationality she was or if she even spoke English. What I did know she was the most gorgeous woman I've ever seen. Me and my baby were sitting on the porch one day she spoke, my kind of language and our sister friendship took off from there. We both finally had a void filled and took our minds off a constant yearning for our families. Our friendship became so tight, there was nothing or no one that could break that, I don't think there was a subject we couldn't and didn't talk about. I was the cook and she would just come downstairs go in my kitchen and help herself I loved it!! Although we couldn't visit each other like we wanted to after getting out of the Air Force, the love for her has never lost it's place in my heart I can still hear her voice and the laugh like no other. I'm so disturbed about this news, but she's no longer in pain, nor suffering. Rest my dear sister in the bosom of our dear Lord. Karimah, Krishshara, and James, I know your mother would want her children to be closer than Siamese twins, so make sure you always take care of each other. If you need anything, don't hesitate to call. Love you all, and may God continue his blessings upon you.

“ My Wright Patterson Air Force Base beautiful sister, (inside and out) friend. and family away from my home family., She filled the void I was missing and made the years so much more easier to bare, I can stink hear her soft voice and distinct laugh. The moment we met we clicked. She was missing her family and so was I. We had each other at that time and nothing else mattered. We stayed in an apartment house, me downstairs and her up. I was the cook at that time and she would always enjoy just popping in and eating and she was forever invited to do what she wanted in my home. Gosh I loved her and will always have a place in my heart she will be missed. Karimah, Krishshara and James Jr., I just want to tell you she was a jewel, and a rare one at that. To have mother like her is such a blessings!! I'm here for you If you need anything, don't hesitate to let me know. I'm praying for your strength, you three stay closer than Siamese twins, knowing my sissy she wouldn't want it any other way, Sending my love.

“ My heart is broken, my dear friend is gone and I will miss her so. We met at Travis AFB, we were neighbors, she was such a beautiful person. We learned how to jump my car one morning, it wouldn't start and she had jumper cables and of course that had to be the reason why it wasn't starting so thank God it was parked on the street so Geralyn pulled her car in front of mine and we proceeded to lift our hoods to connect the jumper cables to the battery not knowing there was a positive and a negative so I got in my car and tried to start it and sparks and fire started flying under the hood all over the place, we had everything wrong, we both started screaming and yanked the cables off the battery and looked at each and just hugged and laughed, it was funny. Both our husbands were deployed at the time and we swore we would not say a word and we didn't until a few years ago when she, Krishara and the grandkids came to visit me in San Antonio Tx. It was just as funny then as it was the morning that it happened minus the sparks!

To the family, stay strong, she's at peace. I love you all!
