

Mrs. Gertrude Reedy

January 23, 1935 - July 15, 2013

Gertrude Reedy was born January 23, 1935 to Sallie Mae Allen and Nathan Mabry in Sharon, MS. Gert's mother, father, stepfather (Bennie Carter), husband and eight siblings preceded her in death.

Gert attended school in Sharon.

At 16, she moved to Milwaukee, WI to stay with cousins Etta and Clarence Gray. In 1955, Gert moved to Detroit, MI with her daughter where her son Glenn was born.

Gert worked for a few years at a linen laundry company. Later, she returned to school and was trained in janitorial services. Several years later, she transitioned to housekeeping. She was employed by Dr. Michael Miller and family until they moved out of state. Gert then went to work for Dr. Robert and Ada Booth for over 40 years. After their passing, Gert continued housekeeping for their daughters, Meg and Ellen until her health failed.

Gert enjoyed her employment and everyone enjoyed and loved her. She was the best at whatever she did. She loved cooking, baking, cleaning and taking care of her family. She always welcomed and served guests to who visited her home.

It was during her employment in janitorial services at Burroughs that she met a security guard, Moses Reedy, Jr. They were married very happily for over 40 years. They worked together, played Bingo and traveled all over with their family. They shared their lives together in a blended family with Gert's two children, Moses' two children and other godchildren as time and years passed on.

On July 15, 2013, Gert just could not stay any longer. She departed this life at 5:35 a.m. at Sinai-Grace Hospice.
