“ Picking me up from the airport, the conversations we had on the way to Bob Evans for breakfast before dropping me off to see my family. I will miss that.

“ A cousin who will never be forgotten. Gilbert shared so many stories with me about his military career, the H2O dept., Detroit, his sister-in-laws, driving to and partying in Cleveland, his red corvette, his family, siblings & grands, his beautiful children, a house build for his wife, but most of all, the romantic and tender love stories and the true love he had for his wife, Cousin Evelyn, every second, every minute, every hour, and every day.
With love, Cousin Shedrina
