“ My dear Aunt Gladys, what can one say about a angel in the flesh? I know your home with THE PRINCE OF PEACE resting in his safe arms with your husband & Pedro but the selfish part of me doesn't want to say good bye. Who's gonna make me key lime pies now? Lol. Auntie I realize your better off now and suffer no more pain but my heart is broken and it feels like the was robbed. I know GOD is ALL KNOWING & PERFECT IN ALL HE DOES but my simple little mind that lacks much understanding just doesn't get it. Life has shown me that so many of us put up hard fights to live, when we're all living to die. I guess I just have to ask GOD to bestow HIS WISDOM upon because understanding in this matter I truly do lack. Auntie I know I got on your nerves flying down your street in the middle of the night on my motorcycle but I had to check on my uncle's wife and children even if y'all didn't know it was me. Auntie I just thank the Lord that HE removed me from the sins of my past so I may be reunion with you and unk in HIS KINGDOM. Until we meet again your great nephew. (James) PS I won't tell nobody I'm your favorite... XOXOXO

“ Our Heavenly Father knows you long for the touch of a hand, the sound of a voice, which has been silenced. HE is merciful and kind. HE will comfort all your grieving hearts and wipe the tears from your eyes. HE understands us, because HE created us. (Revelation 7:16-17) HE is the one who tells us: (Isaiah 41:10 & 13) “For I am your God, I am grasping your right hand, the One saying to you, ‘Do not be afraid. I myself will help you.

The sudden demise of my friend and family member is utterly appalling and shocking for me. And, I pray to the Lord to give our family strength to cope with the loss. I have a hole in my heart will only be filled when I see my Aunt Gladys once again.
