“ Glenn, I feel so bad that I didn't make time to see you before you went home to be with the Lord. You were a really talented handyman, electrician, a great drummer, singer, and most of all a great husband, father, and friend. You were almost like a big brother to me. My wife and I have nothing but pleasant memories of you. You will be sorely missed, brother, especially the days we used to play music together with Jun, Anthony, Maurice (RIP), Marvin (RIP), Don, and James (RIP). May God give your family peace, and I pray that we meet again on the other side. Sincerely, Richard and Latrecia Moner
