“ "Dear Moma, I'm so grateful for the way I was raised. You were never afraid to be my mother — to put your foot down and get me together and gave me those hands if necessary, you taught me right from wrong and to respect elders and adults , to greet others with a smile and respect to speak when spoken to and to be kind to everyone I came in contact with , to make sure I did my best. You always let me know I had a mama who cared about me, who believed in me, who was there for me no matter what.

“ Gloria truly loved coming to visit Marvin and I. She would be so vibrant just saying hello to us and asking Marvin how he was doing. I am so thankful that I had the previledge of having her presence in my life.

“ They say there is a reason

They say time will heal;

Neither time or reason

Will change the way i feel.

Gone are the days

We used to share,

But in my heart

You are always there.

The gates of memories

Will never close;

I miss you more than

Anybody knows...

Love and miss you everyday

Till we meet again I Love you Moma

Always & Forever ❤️🙏

I would start shouting through the store Moma trying to locate you Moma you loved to shopping so much you and your Sister Judy, I remember you asking me why don't Macys have shopping carts lol 😂

I enjoyed taking you to get pampered going to get our nails and feet done together priceless .

“ You are my dearest friend since 1972. People always said if you see one you see the other. You are as dear to me as my blood sister and I dearly love you. I miss you so very much and it tears my heart apart that you aren't here. I look forward to the resurrection when I can once again hug you. May God bless and comfort your family. I'll never forget you my sister BFF

“Gloria definitely believed in family and unity, she knew me before I knew her. Once I was officially introduced to her two oldest children(my siblings) , she made sure I felt welcome and had so many stories to share with me. Also kept it real at all times. She was warm, fun and cool. Such a beautiful soul. Love you for loving me

“ You taught me to play cards, make pancakes, even had my first cup of coffee with you. I was at your house so much some people thought I was one of your kids. You encouraged me, cheered for me, was a shoulder to cry on and an ear to listen. You were loving, stylish, fun, a grandmother about taking care of business. I always remember you saying “Say what you mean and mean what you say”. I can’t help but to think of all the good memories you provided me with to last a lifetime. I will miss you so much. Love you granny

“ We used to beg to go on sussex..literally crying .. granny taught me how to play matches, dominos, she used to do this lil piggy on our toes...we used walk up to the stores and she made it seem like an adventure. My favorite memory is just when the family would all meet over granny house playin cards and listening to music. She would make up rules to Spades saying she been playin the game before we was born lol. She loved family so deeply.. and her heart was big. She always would say don’t speak about it just do it and she did just that. She always showed up & never asked for credit or anything in return.What I’m gonna miss the most is the talks and encouragement. I can use that comfort for right now as I grieve. I love granny and this just a blow to my heart
