

Ms. Gloria Dean Warren

July 10, 1938 - October 24, 2013

Gloria Dean Warren, a woman of elegance and grace, was born on July 10, 1938 in Helena, Arkansas to Tyree and Dorothy Fuller. At a young age, she relocated to Detroit, MI with her family where the foundation of her life began to manifest.

As a young adult, Gloria learned the power of salvation and enjoyed participating in praise and worship at her church home, Christian Tabernacle Church. In her latter days she continued to praise God in the privacy of her home through songs, prayer and private letters she would address to her heavenly father. She shared with her family the best gift a mother or grandmother could share, the gift of her salvation.

After many years in the field of hospital administration, Gloria decided to pursue her passion for encouraging, empowering and impacting the care of families and individuals. In 1984 she began her journey for higher education at Highland Park Community College where she obtained her Associates Degree in Applied Arts in Substance Abuse Counseling. She continued on to Mercy College of Detroit where she received her Bachelor of Science Degree in Counseling. She changed the direction of her family by being the first individual in her lineage to receive a college degree. She utilized her degrees to build a career in the field of Social Work.

Gloria expressed her joy and excitement for life through music, dancing and shopping. Her grandchildren would tell her that she could shop until the moon and the stars came out. She also loved to travel and spend time with her beloved friends and family.
