“ On her homegoing, I celebrate the life of my dear sister, GRACE EDITH GIST HENDERSON! My sister was a beautiful, brilliant, talented, and spiritual woman, who, along with my late father, undertook the responsibility of nurturing her five teen-aged siblings shortly after our mother passed away more than 52 years ago. Not only did "Amazing Grace" run the household while her younger siblings pursued their educational and career goals, but she also completed her own education--eventually earning a Ph.D. from Michigan State University. She also raised two wonderful children of her own, Rahman and Aisha--both of whom are highly educated and accomplished individuals.

My parting words to you, Dear Grace, are that, even though I was unable to be at your bedside when you took your final breath, I was there in spirit, and will hold cherished memories of you always and forever as you reunite with our beloved parents and brother in the great beyond. I love you, Sis! From your loving sister Andrena and Family. 🌸💕💕

“ My dear and beloved Sister Grace. We had the pleasure of meeting at the WCCI Community Group meetings at the University Towers at Wayne State. Afterwards we served as prayer counselors when the church started at the Charles Wright Museum. You went on to serve in Children's Ministry where you had a profound impact on my daughter who gave her life to Christ. You are a true Warrior with unending Faith. My beautiful sister even during your health challenges you continued to Praise God and lead many others to Christ. We spoke on November 26th and we praised God for the knowledge He imparted on you and I thanked you for blessing me with a Praise and progress report. I can't think of anyone more dedicated to the faith than you. May you rest in Peace my Sister. I love / loved you so much for your faithfulness and you are a true example and inspiration for those who are seeking the faith. Thank you for letting God use you on November 26th to touch my soul and rekindle my faith. You are a True Warrior and I KNOW you are in Heaven. Tell Jesus I said hello. xxx ooo. Sister Martha.
