

Mrs. Gracie Alston

January 26, 1918 - July 13, 2013

Gracie Alston was born on January 26, 1918 to the union of Zebedee and Daisy Wiley in Nanofalio, Alabama.

She married Caldwell Landrum, and from that union two sons were born, Eugene and George. George preceded her in death.

She moved to Michigan, where she worked for many years as a nursing assistant. She also worked and retired from Plastic Steele of Inkster, Michigan.

In 1974, she married Johnnie Alston and lived in Detroit, Michigan until her death.

She was a card playing member, which she enjoyed for over 40 years. She was an avid gardener, she loved working in her yard, one of her most favorite pastimes.

As a young adult, she enjoyed softball, fishing and traveling.

Anyone that knew "Gracie" knew she made the best cornbread.

“ Dear Family of Mrs. Gracie Alston,

So sorry to here of your loss of your love one but in Gods word the Bible it offers us real hope at Isaiah 25: 8 how God said "He will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord will certainly wipe the tears from all faces. And the reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth for God himself has spoken it."
