“ Greg was such a wonderful guy. He was one of the first people I met when I first joined MGM and his kindness made me feel very welcome. Always greeted others with a smile and went above and beyond to make others feel special. He will truly be missed. Deepest condolences to the family.

“ Vance and I were saddened to hear of the passing of Gregory. A person that departs from this earth never truly leaves for they are still alive in our hearts and minds, through us, they live on. We can take comfort that Gregory is now resting in the arms of our Lord. We are here for you. With much Love, your Sister and Brother-in-Law, Leslie and Vance Johnson.

“ Synthia, ever since you shared your sad news I've been praying your strength. You and your family have my deepest sympathies. I remember Greg well from our MGM days. I'm glad that he had a relationship with Christ, and we know he's in a better place.

As we are blessed to work together again, please let me know if you need anything. Even if you can't say anything, I'll be there. Sending you love and hugs when you need them most!!

With deepest sympathy,

Michelle Baker

“ Dearest Cousin: I am so sorry to hear this news! I am stunned! I am so glad that I got a chance to meet Greg years ago when you all came for Grandma Nyler services. He had me cracking up with his sense of humor. He was gregarious man and a spiritual man. Synthia, I pray for God's comfort and healing for you and the family during this hour. But when a person has a relationship with Christ, the tears are tears of joy and not hopeless sorrow! God promised to keep you and He will never let you go. Please call me when you are ready. I love you for eternity. Cousin, Brenda Washington Brown
