“ Hello. I worked with Greg at the Birmingham Post Office. We always shared good humor, and I enjoyed our conversations. He was a very good man, and I will miss his big smile..
May God Bless his family.

“ I worked with Gregory at the post office, he was my relief guy for a couple of years and always did my route on my days off. The customers on the route really liked him a lot. We were polar opposites who grew close, and when management tried to push him around, we pushed back and prevailed in the grievance cases that we filed together.

One time I learned that I was (a little) older than his parents. He said, "I guess that'll make you my grandpa." To which I responded, "Well, yes and no, on that one." He just grinned that broad smile of his. Smart, likeable, witty, and well-mannered all describe this unique young man.

After we both left the post office, Greg and I kept in touch by sending cartoons or jokes to each other via text. I recently got a new phone and kept him among my contacts, with a hope that someday we will be in touch again.

There are no adequate words to articulate this tragic loss, I am heart broken as well. I have been blessed to be acquainted with someone who will always have a special place in my heart and memory. I pray for Gregory and his family, and will cherish this moment to share and remember him. Thank you, Brian Drumm, retired letter carrier, Birmingham.
