“ I thank GOD for Ms. Gussie Gladney her my late grandmother were friends. They loved GOD and fellowshipped together. Ms.Gussie was a prayer warrior. She was very sweet and kind woman of GOD. I'm so grateful to have known such a beautiful woman of GOD. Sweet rest now, see you in the rapture. My condolences to all of you family. Love Deborah Jones 🌸💖

I am so sad to hear my godmother has passed away. She was a big part of my life. My father used to call her mama Gussie. She was there for me when both of my parents passed 14 days apart. I'm kind of lost for words right now because I didn't know she had passed away just looking on Internet trying to find where she moved to. I live next-door to her for over 35 years or more. She was the only person there when I was baptized as a child at the age of 13. I used to go to church with her on Sundays and sometimes during the week. I have so much I can say, But I'm really lost with words right now. I am so sorry for your loss. Jackie and JoJo and your mother. Your loss is my loss as well. I loved her to pieces. May God bless you. Sending all my love to the family . Sincerely, Danna. 🌹💔😭😭😭😭😭😭

“ Mrs Gussie was one of those persons that didn't preach her faith, she lived it! She treated people with love and kindness and respect that is in short supply in this day and age. She will be sorely miss but I know she will be sharing grace with god.

“ Mrs Gussie came into my life when I needed her the most. She believed in me when I didn't believe in myself. My heart is broken but I will always think her as my angel.
Always your youngin, Loretta.
