

Mrs. Gussie Mae Morrow

December 4, 1931 - August 5, 2017

Going Home Celebration For Gussie Mae Morrow:

December 4, 1931, Gussie Mae Porter-Morrow entered into this world to the parents of Mary Elizabeth Manning and John D. Porter Sr. of Memphis Tennessee. From this union Gussie was the 4th child of 5 beautiful children. She loved and accepted Christ at an early age at Faith Church of the Nazarene. Gussie entered into holy matrimony to Edward Morrow (who preceded her in death) and from this convenient a fruitful and blessed marriage began.

God's grace allowed this union to bare two sons, John D. Porter Jr. and Tyrone Daniels (both preceding her in death). God's mercy allowed us to enjoy the life of Gussie. Gussie was educated in Memphis Tennessee Public School System, she worked all her life as a wife, mother, severing in the food service industry and Home Health Care. Gussie later in life relocated to Michigan to live out her golden years where she joined New Hope Church of the Nazarene. She enriched the lives of all she encountered. Gussie's time was spent giving of herself. She will be well missed at the Romulus Senior Community Center where she was regarded as their "Mother". Gussie also served on the Mother Board of Romulus Community Baptist Church. Gussie was well known for having a sweet tooth, keepsake gifts, loving to impart wisdom through conversation, and as a selfless relentless servant for the Lord.
