“ One of the most statuesque, regal, stoic women of God that has ever crossed my path. The adage about seeing goodness in actions was so prevalent in this talented soul. An amazing, blazing lesson, for I really only knew, respected, & loved her merely her genuine "Christlike" actions. "Do Njoy Heaven, Gwen. God makes excellent choices.

“ *"To: the Cochran Family, With Sympathy At this time of Sudden Loss of your mother.
Many hearts go out to you at this time of such disbelief and sadness. And though no one can take away your sorrow, may the support and the concern of others help give you the strength you need from day to day. Please remember the memories of such a great lovely person she was to everyone. Gods peace I Give to you all!*

“ It goes without saying that Gwen will be greatly missed. Gwen was not only a co-worker but a friend, although I am saddened by her passing I will forever treasure the times we shared together; but most importantly I will remember the lessons she taught us all by the way she lived her life. The generosity Gwen showed towards all those she came in contact with, the love she had for her family, church (especially the kids) and dear friends. Therefore, as I pray for the entire Cochran family during this difficult time I leave this with “weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning”. (Psalm 30:5)

“ Gwen’s warm smile, calm demeanor and desire to help anyone in need immediately stood out to me when I joined the IRS Appeals family. Quietly competent, she had a compelling need to help others both at work and in the world at large. Working with and problem solving with her was a delight. I enjoyed talking with her about her work and experiences with Detroit-Windsor Dance Academy, her family and her faith. Finding new lunch restaurants together amongst the then sparse offerings downtown was always fun.

Gwen was a genuinely wonderful person and I was proud to be her friend. She celebrated life every day. I will miss her, as I know will the countless others who she touched. My heart goes out to the Cochran family for such a tragic loss.

“ To a Woman of God who blessed the world with the gift of service and worship. The Knight family sends their encouragement and prayers during this most difficult time. On resurrection Sunday Gwen praised and worshipped herself right into the presence of God. Those at Ryan's Correctional facility will ever be grateful for her time and dedication during the those year's she ministered their. May God forever keep you during this time of sorrow and joy. “ The Disclosure Office would like to express our deep appreciation for the diligent effort, patient perseverance, gracious commitment Gwen demonstrated when she worked with us. Assigned to the task of updating and improving stacks and stacks of pattern correspondence, Gwen gave it her all. In preparation for that undertaking, Gwen participated in training, she was an engaged learner and interested in learning all she could. Gwen modeled resilience, adaptability, and dedication during the time she spent with us in Disclosure. We know that that must have been the way she conducted her entire career and, indeed, her life. We join you in your sorrow at her loss. We celebrate with you the wonderful life she lived. ~ With and for the IRS Disclosure family, Mitzi Patino Eastman

“Gwen was full of joy. I worked with her in Appeals and she was one of the nicest and smartest people. She was always willing to help you solve a problem and always had a smile on her face. Before I retired we met for lunch as it had been a while since we had seen each other and had a delightful time. So sad that such a wonderful person left us so early to go to heaven.
