

Mrs. Gwendolyn A. Jones

June 21, 1924 - August 17, 2016

The Journey:

Gwendolyn A. Jones was born June 21, 1924 to Norman Henry and Savannah Fowlkes in Pine Bluff, Arkansas. Both of her parents, husband, son, Thomas and ten siblings: Lenora Shackelford, Ioma Williams, Annie Patillo, Savannah Moore, Lurlean Glenn, Norman Fowlkes Jr., Edward Fowlkes, Meryle O'Neal, Jonathan Fowlkes and Susie Boynes preceded her in death. She accepted Jesus as her Lord and Savior in Detroit, Michigan.

Gwendolyn was educated in the Pine Bluff, Arkansas school system. She was a dedicated wife and mother of three children, Thomas, Pearl and James. She also had a son, James Jones and three daughters, Valarie, Costella and Loraine.

Her motto was: Live life to the fullest and don't forget God, also, help somebody along the way.

She loved cooking, bowling, caring for the sick and teaching the youth at her church. She loved to entertain family, friends and co-workers in her home. She enjoyed listening to her daughter's pastor, Dr. Phillip R. Jackson's personal testimony every night before going to sleep.

She was a dedicated member of St. John and Bunton Metropolitan C.M.E. She was President of the Usher Board, Financial Committee and wherever else she was needed.

She departed this life on Wednesday, August 17, 2016 in her home.
