“ Grandma Gwen.. this is tough. The emotions I'm feeling are hard to describe. You are going to be missed dearly.. your laugh, your smile, you always being there for us. Thank you so much! WE love you! I know you wouldn't want me to be so torn up, but it's difficult knowing I will not see you, hug you, laugh with you, talk to you anymore..but I'm so grateful to have had someone so special in my life. We love you..

“I met Gwen at the age of 17 when she became a guiding force and blessing to me and my family. There for weddings, childbirths(where she became a grandmother to my daughter)Always with us through Joy and pain. Years of being another mother and positive influence in my life. I'll miss her smile, laugh and her strutting across Ferguson to moms. Lots of wonderful memories Always in my heart ❤️
“Foreverness “ 🙏

“ I met Gwen as a new graduate nurse in 1970. She was welcoming and became someone I looked up to, she quickly became a friend. This I think was true of all the nurses she met. She will truly be missed and will forever be in my heart, my condolences to all who loved her.
